
Reporting

Autofax

Electronic transfer of test results is provided through Conway Regional Clinical Laboratory Services Information System to a fax machine. This system is set up for timely delivery of test results when orders are non-electronic.

Mailed Reports

Mailed reports can be provided at a client's request and indicate patient information, account number, date of service, test name, result(s), and reference values.